CHAPTER 1 - YEAR-WISE AND JUDGESHIP-WISE LETTER AND APPLICATION QUESTIONS (2016–2025)

Introduction

Letter and application writing is an important part of the English paper in Odisha District Court recruitment examinations. The questions cover a wide range of subjects, including public problems, education, health, employment, banking, social welfare, personal experiences and family relationships.

This chapter presents the available questions in a year-wise and judgeship-wise arrangement. Candidates should practise the questions carefully, paying particular attention to the person to whom the letter or application is addressed, the purpose of writing, the facts supplied in the question and any special instruction regarding names or addresses.

The questions are arranged below under the year and judgeship with which they are associated. Where the year or judgeship is not clearly specified, the question is placed separately rather than being assigned an uncertain attribution.
